

BUILDING RENOVATIONS SERVICE OF THE YEAR

R.Hall & Son Developments Ltd

Established in 2023, R. Hall & Son Developments Ltd specialises in innovative and high-quality building project development. The family-run business from Sheffield undertakes projects ranging from bespoke new-build homes to complete property renovations, managing every stage from roof to cellar with exceptional attention to detail. Combining traditional craftsmanship with modern construction methods, the company provides tailored solutions that reflect each client's aspirations while maintaining rigorous standards of workmanship. Its hands-on approach, dependable project delivery and commitment to lasting quality have enabled the business to build trust and establish a growing presence within the regional construction sector.

The judges were particularly impressed by the company's ability to combine personalised service with consistently high standards across a diverse range of projects. Every development is approached collaboratively, ensuring clients remain involved throughout the process with clear communication, realistic budgets and transparent timescales. Skilled tradespeople, premium materials and meticulous planning underpin results designed to stand the test of time, while sustainable building practices and energy-efficient solutions demonstrate a forward-thinking mindset.
